The camp facilities include three 90'/80'/70' and four 60' baseball diamonds maintained to exceptional standards. The players are housed in the Oliver Arena adjacent to the baseball diamonds and the community swimming pool.

KAMLOOPS, B.C.

Located on the North bank of the Thompson River, McArthur Island Baseball Complex is home of the Big League Experiences "Best of the West" Tournaments that draws teams from Throughout Canada and the Northwest

The 51 ha. (126 ac.) island is lavishly equipped with a baseball stadium, numerous playing fields, a golf course, indoor sports centre, bicycle paths and many other amenities for the family to enjoy.

Former Canadian Olympic Team Coach and MLB Scout, Marty Lehn along with Former Boston Red Sox Player, Colin Dixon bring BLE into fruition in 1997.

Marty has been a Major League Scout for 15 years as well as the Head Coach or Assistant Coach for both our Canadian National team and Team BC for several years. Having been part of the Bronze medal Pan American Games team, several World qualifiers, World Championships and Olympic Qualifiers, it was the summer of 2004 that proved to be a most memorable one as he was on the coaching staff of the Canadian Olympic Team that finished fourth at the 2004 Olympic Games held in Athens, Greece. With Team BC he guided the club to a Gold medal in 2001 and Silver in 2005 at the Canada Games and was recognized by Baseball BC as the Coach of the year in 1997. In 1998 Marty was named the "Canadian Coach of the Year" by Baseball Canada. He has been a guest coach with the Toronto Blue Jays and Chicago White Sox organizations. Marty is a NCCP Level IV coach that led several coach and player clinics throughout the years. He played and coached at Southeastern Louisiana University where he completed a Master's degree in Exercise Science and Health Promotion.

Colin was drafted by the Boston Red Sox and played eight years with that organization up to the AAA level. He then signed with the Colorado Rockies organization as a free agent. He was a member of the 1999 Team Canada that won the bronze medal at the Pan Am Games in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Colin was named to America's All-Star team at the America's Cup Challenge and participated at the World Championships held in Italy. Colin attended Southeastern Louisiana University where he led the team in several offensive categories and received All-American status. He was the youngest player to play for Canada's National and Jr. National teams at age 17 the same year and is a product of B.C.'s elite development programs.
