CAMP LIFE

Experienced players and coaches make up the staff of counselors and instructors at the Big League Experience Baseball Camp. They give each camper individual attention, outstanding mentorship and skills training. The camp atmosphere is fun, spirited and professional. Players are developed through positive reinforcement and rewarding, enjoyable experiences in the spirit of competition.

Objectives:

- Teach leadership through experience
- Teach the value of good team sportsmanship
- Focus on the assessment and development of each individual player
- Give players an improved sense of self-discipline and ability to self-assess
- Share a love of baseball

Each afternoon the players compete in throwing, base running, hitting, pitching and fielding segments. The campers form teams that participate in games throughout the week and earn “team runs” for good sportsmanship, behavior and camp activities. Each week culminates with playoffs, top players competing in the Superstars race, the Home Run Derby and an awards/recognition ceremony.

All players leave with individual written reports/evaluations from their coach.

STAFF EXPERIENCE

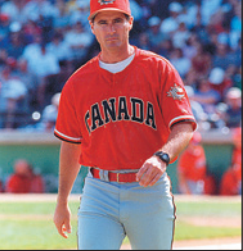

An Elite staff heads up our Instructional team

The Coaching/Counseling staff is second to none, boasting former Major Leaguers as well as Canadian and US National Team members along with active scouts and top University coaches and players. Campers are supervised at all times by the staff. The Big League Experience Camp program, facilities and staff provide the best baseball environment Canada has to offer - truly in a league of its own.

FOUNDERS OF BIG LEAGUE EXPERIENCE

Former Canadian Olympic Team Coach and MLB Scout, Marty Lehn along with Former Boston Red Sox Player, Colin Dixon brought BLE into fruition in 1997. Marty was a Major League Scout for 15 years as well as the Head Coach or Assistant Coach for both our Canadian National (Olympic) team and Team BC for several years. Having been part of the Bronze medal Pan American Games team, several World qualifiers, World Championships and Olympic Qualifiers, it was the summer of 2004 that proved to be a most memorable one as he was on the coaching staff of the Canadian Olympic Team that finished fourth at the 2004 Olympic Games held in Athens, Greece. With Team BC he guided the club to a Gold medal in 2001 and Silver in 2005 at the Canada Games and was recognized by Baseball BC as the Coach of the year in 1997. In 1998 Marty was named the “Canadian Coach of the Year” by Baseball Canada. He has been a guest coach with the Toronto Blue Jays and Chicago White Sox organizations. Marty is a NCCP Level IV coach that led several coach and player clinics throughout the years. He played and coached at Southeastern Louisiana University where he completed a Master's degree in Exercise Science and Health Promotion.

Colin was drafted by the Boston Red Sox and played eight years with that organization up to the AAA level. He then signed with the Colorado Rockies organization as a free agent. He was a member of the 1999 Team Canada that won the bronze medal at the Pan Am Games in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Colin was named to America's All-Star team at the America's Cup Challenge and participated at the World Championships held in Italy. Colin attended Southeastern Louisiana University where he led the team in several offensive categories and received All-American status. He was the youngest player to play for Canada's National and Jr. National teams at age 17 the same year and is a product of B.C.'s elite development programs.
